Proceeds from our sale are used for unrestricted grants to domestic violence shelters in Washington state. Often women arrive with nothing but what they can take with them.

This is an all volunteer event and all jewelry to be sold has been donated. It is sorted, cleaned, repaired if necessary, and lovingly displayed by our volunteers for you to take home and refresh your jewelry collection.

Bring your unused jewelry to the sale and help us continue our mission. Besides this sale, we distribute donated jewelry to over 25 organizations and programs throughout WA state.

What's to see there!
